

Financial Management Institute

John “Ed” Murphy, CPA CPE CGFM CPCM

Owner/Founder

Ed is the founder and owner of the Financial Management Institute (FMI), a management consulting firm specializing in procurement, finance, public policy, forensic accounting, and litigation support.. He established this firm in 1991 after completing a Federal career of more than 32 years. FMI's client service includes acquisition support service, expert witness and forensic accounting service, and "trouble shooting" client problems.

Ed has over 50 years experience in such diverse areas as financial management, acquisition, auditing, logistics, human resources development, and public policy. He gained this experience beginning in 1955, when he started working for a local CPA firm in his native Pittsburgh . He's worked in the private sector for CPA firms; and in the public sector for the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO), the Defense Contract Audit Agency (DCAA), the Naval Audit Service, and the Office of Personnel Management (OPM).

Ed is the author of GUIDE TO CONTRACT PRICING: COST AND PRICE ANALYSIS FOR CONTRACTORS, SUBCONTRACTORS, AND GOVERNMENT AGENCIES, now in its 5th edition, and used at University of Maryland - University College, Webster University in Merritt Island Florida, and Strayer University

Ed obtained a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (Accounting) degree from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh . He is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), a Certified Government Financial Manager (CGFM), and a Certified Professional Contracts Manager (CPCM).

www.fmi.cc

703.532.9106/9107

ed@fmi.cc

